CITY UPDATES: Summer is winding down, but there are a lot of issues that the City continues to be involved in. I thought the City residents would be interested in being made aware of some of these issues.

- The bridge across the Teton River is nearing completion.
- The subdivision north of the Teton River, called River Bend Ranch, is in the planning stage.
- The old Farm Estates subdivision south of town is moving forward with its next stage of planning.
- The planning for a new well within the city is being worked on.
- We have negotiated contracts with three internet providers who pay the City to have the use of our water tower.
- Updates and changes have been made to our City Comprehensive Plan.
- We're working on a new twenty-year franchise agreement with Rocky Mountain Power.
- The southwest part of the City is being included in an urban renewal district in preparation for development.
- We are installing Scada metering devices on our water and sewer lines where they will be helpful and where we can afford them.
- We have placed some playground equipment in the Mayor Park to help with the overflow use of Heritage Park.
- The County Food Bank will be distributed in Sugar City in the coming months.
- New security camera equipment has been installed.
- We continue to keep the streets in as good a condition as we can afford.
- We have applied for a grant to help install A.D.A. ramps on Center Street intersections.
